PCA Sim Racing is fun, and fun is good! To keep our community fun and a welcoming place for all PCA Sim Racers to participate, please observe the following rules PCA Sim Racing is now adopting as an official club program and a social media platform for members.

1. You must be an active or affiliate PCA Member to participate in this group.
2. Your Discord screen name must be your PCA name, both first and last name.
3. Discussion is welcomed, but personal attacks, disparaging commentary, and inflammatory posts are not allowed. Any posts that are racist, sexist, or discriminatory in any way will be removed. Users will follow the PCA Code of Ethics and Conduct.
4. Profanity is unprofessional and not welcome here.
5. Leave the last race on the track behind you.
6. If you have a problem with a race steward's decision, communicate privately with them.
7. Do not post photos or videos of sim or real crashes.
8. Please stay on-topic. Talk about Sim Racing, PCA, Porsche, and cars in general. The PCA Sim Racing Discord server(s) are not the place for politics or conversations about religion, or social issues.
9. Sim racing items for-sale posts are permitted in the Virtual Swap Meet channel, but only by participating PCA Sim Racing individuals and never representing a company. Be honest about the quality of your item and be fair in your price. PCA is not responsible for any transactions.
10. Moderators will remove posts in violation of community standards. Posts may be deleted without prior notification.
11. Repeat offenders may be suspended and/or removed from the PCA Sim Racing League servers(s).
12. Follow the same conduct on the PCA Sim Racing Discord server(s) as you do on the track.
